Thirsty HHH Run Report 12 May 2019

A good sized pack assembled at the Newmarket hotel, swelled by the returning hashers from Croc Nash Hash and a few visitors.

Assembling outside, we were soon to be confused by the hares Yakity and Next Week telling us of the run and the circle at BWS. But which BWS, who knows, something to sort later.

after the usual lies of short run, no hills the pack was off to Holloway Field and Spencer Park and along the bike path of Breakfast Creek. The front runners Shiggy and Thunderbox soon disappeared. Wagga Wagga, so good they named him twice, faded into the bushes, later to emerge ahead of the pack after his usual cunning short cutting. Pithy put on a mixed performance, sometimes with the front runners but fell behind and joined the walkers.

Wagga put on several cameo appearances disappearing again into the scrub. Adda did not join the runners having consulted herself on Medicare and unable to cure herself of the man-flu she had caught.

It was a great trail, well marked, picking up some good bike paths, cross country and of course plenty of hills. To top this we ran in circles up the same hill around View Street with the its grand finale up the hill to Enoggera Road. Here the last hazard awaited hashers, the streak across Enoggera Road to the Newmarket hotel. Waiting at lights is a foreign concept to hashers when a hotel is in sight.

At the circle Yakity and Next Week were given 10/10 by Thunderbox for a well set run.

Adda also gave top marks for the walk.

Down downs were

The hares Yakity and Next Week, with a bonus for Yakity for speaking on the phone in NZ pidgeon.

Adda for being sick

OS for drinking wine for some reason

Visitor Sex Change from Capital HHH

Candice

Boxy

Pithy and Flasher for comparing sizes
